DYNAMOMETER ELEMENT

FIRST OFFICE ACTION

TITLE

The title of the invention is not descriptive of the claimed invention. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

DRAWINGS

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the reference signs 31 and 32 which are mentioned in the specification.

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. The claims are directed to a method for operating an internal combustion engine as pertaining to fuel delivery. The drawings are directed to a dynamometer element. Nothing in the drawings relate to a method for operating an internal combustion engine and/or fuel delivery.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the Examiner, the Applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

SPECIFICATION

The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction is required.

The specification is directed to a dynamometer element. The claims are directed to a method for operating an internal combustion engine as pertaining to fuel delivery. Nothing in the specification relates to a method for operating an internal combustion engine or fuel delivery.

CLAIMS

35 U.S.C. § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 23-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claims contain subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The claims are directed to a method for operating an internal combustion engine as pertaining to fuel delivery. The specification is directed to a dynamometer element. Nothing in the specification relates to a method for operating an internal combustion engine and/or fuel delivery and thus would not enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Likewise, claims 23-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification does not provide enablement for the claimed invention. The specification does not enable a person skilled in the art to which it pertains to make and/or use the invention commensurate in scope with the claims.
